

Contents

List of Cases	ix
Preface	xiii
Introduction	xv

Part I Ethics and Values in Nursing

Chapter 1

Values in Health and Illness 3

Identifying Evaluations in Nursing	4
Identifying Ethical Conflicts	15
Benefit to the Patient vs Benefit to Others	15
The Rights of the Patient vs the Welfare of the Patient	19
Moral Rules and the Nurse's Conscience	23
Limits on Rights and Rules	27

Chapter 2

The Nurse and Moral Authority 35

The Authority of the Profession	37
The Authority of the Physician	42
The Authority of the Institution	46
The Authority of the Health Insurer	50
The Authority of Society	52
The Authority of the Patient	56

Chapter 3

Moral Integrity and Moral Distress 61

- Why Does Moral Agency Matter? 63
- Moral Distress 63
- Creating and Sustaining Healthy and Ethical Work Environments 66
 - Ethics Environment Assessments 67
 - Resources for Establishing and Sustaining Healthy Environments 67
 - Change Theory Models 68

Part II Ethical Issues in Nursing

Chapter 4

Benefiting the Patient and Others: The Duty to Produce Good and Avoid Harm 79

- Benefit to the Patient 82
 - Uncertainty About What Is Actually Beneficial to a Patient 83
 - Health Benefits vs Overall Benefits 85
 - Benefiting vs Avoiding Harm 89
 - Act vs Rule Consequentialism 91
- Benefit to the Institution 94
- Benefit to Society 97
- Benefit to Identified Nonclients 99
- Benefit to the Profession 102
- Benefit to Oneself and One's Family 105

Chapter 5

Justice: The Allocation of Health Resources 109

- The Ethics of Allocating Resources 111
 - Two Meanings of the Word Justice 111
 - Three Ways to Allocate Resources 111
 - Justice Among the Nurse's Patients 114
 - Justice Between Patients and Others 122
- Justice in Public Policy 126
- Justice and Other Ethical Principles 131

Chapter 6

Respect 136

- Ignoring a Person as a Person and Focusing Only on the Pathology or “Task” to Be Performed 139
- Arrogant Decision Making 141
- Humiliating Others 144

Chapter 7

The Principle of Autonomy 149

- Internal Constraints on Autonomy 152
- External Constraints on Autonomy 159
- Overriding Autonomy 164
 - Paternalistic Overriding of Autonomy 164
 - Overriding Autonomy to Benefit Others 169

Chapter 8

Veracity 174

- The Condition of Doubt 176
- Duties and Consequences in Truth Telling 179
 - Lying and Patient Well-Being 179
 - Lying and the Well-Being of Others 184
- Complications in Truth Telling 187
 - When the Patient Asks for Dishonesty 187
 - When the Family Asks Not to Tell 188
 - The Right to Health Records 192

Chapter 9

Fidelity 196

- Promise Keeping 197
 - Explicit Promises 198
 - Implicit Promises and the Right of Access to Health Care 201
- Confidentiality 203
 - When the Patient May Be Harmed 209
 - When Others May Be Harmed 215
 - When Required by Law 220

Chapter 10

The Sanctity of Human Life 223

- Actions and Omissions 225
- Criteria for Justifiable Omission 229
- Withholding and Withdrawing 233
- Direct and Indirect Killing 238
- Voluntary and Involuntary Killing 243
- Is Withholding Food and Water Killing? 247

Part III Special Problem Areas in Nursing Practice

Chapter 11

Abortion, Contraception, and Sterilization 259

- Abortion 260
- Contraception 270
- Sterilization 274

Chapter 12

Genetics, Birth, and the Biologic Revolution 278

- Genetic Counseling 280
- Genetic Screening 289
- In Vitro Fertilization and Artificial Insemination 294
- Genetic Engineering 306

Chapter 13

Psychiatry and the Control of Human Behavior 313

- Psychotherapy 317
 - The Concept of Mental Health 317
 - Mental Illness and Autonomous Behavior 320
 - Mental Illness and Third-Party Interests 324
- Other Behavior-Controlling Therapies 329

Chapter 14HIV/AIDS Care 333

- Conflicts Between Rights and Duties 335
 - Screening/Testing for HIV 335
 - Balancing Confidentiality Protection and the Duty to Warn 339
 - The Rights of HIV-Infected Individuals 345
- Conflicts Involving the Cost of Treatment and Allocation of Resources 349
- Research on HIV 357

Chapter 15Experimentation on Human Beings 364

- Calculating Risks and Benefits 370
- Protecting Privacy 377
- Equity in Research 380
- Informed Consent in Research 383

Chapter 16Consent and the Right to Refuse Treatment 396

- The Right to Refuse Treatment 401
- The Elements and Standards of Disclosure 405
- Comprehension and Voluntariness 413
- Consent for Patients Who Lack Decision Capacity 418

Chapter 17Death and Dying 426

- The Definition of Death 429
- Competent and Formerly Competent Patients 433
 - Treating Against the Wishes of the Patient 433
 - The Patient in Conflict with the Physician and the Family 436
 - The Problem of the Ambivalent Patient 438
- Never-Competent Patients and Those Who Have Never Expressed Their Wishes 441
 - How Much Discretion Should Family Have? 443
 - Nonfamily Surrogates 448
 - Divisions Within the Family 451
- Futile Care 458
- Limits Based on the Interests of Other Parties 464

Appendix 473

Glossary 479

Index 487