
Contents

Contributors	xi
Foreword by Steve Peters	xiv
Foreword by Thomas Newmark	xvi
Acknowledgments	xviii
Preface	xix
PART ONE: MENTAL HEALTH CHALLENGES FACED BY ATHLETES	1
1 Substance Use in Athletes	3
Eric D. Morse
Background and Scope of Problem	3
Reasons for Use	4
Traumatic Brain Injury	5
Recognizing Substance Use	6
Treatment	7
College versus Professional	8
Specific Substances	8
Conclusions	11
2 Addiction in Retired Athletes	13
Pavel A. Ponizovskiy
Background	13
Athletic Retirement – Always Traumatic?	13
A Model of Adaptation to Athletic Retirement	14
Substance Abuse and Addiction in Retired Athletes	16
Preretirement Predispositions to Addictions	17
Painkillers Misuse	17
Smoking	17
Drinking	18
Conclusion	18
3 Doping in Sport	21
David A. Baron, Claudia L. Reardon, and Steven H. Baron
Introduction	21
History of Doping in Sport	22
The Current State of Doping in Sports	23
Controversies of Positive Drug Tests	26
Financial and Business Implications	26
Short- and Long-Term Effects of Doping	27

Gene Doping	29
Cultural Issues Associated with Doping	29
Case Studies	29
Summary	30
4 Exercise Addiction: The Dark Side of Sports and Exercise	33
Tamás Kurimay, Mark D. Griffiths, Krisztina Berczik, and Zsolt Demetrovics
Definitions, Symptomology, and Classification	33
Assessment of Exercise Addiction	35
Epidemiology	35
Comorbidity	35
Etiology	37
Conclusion and Implications	40
Acknowledgments	40
5 Eating Disorders in Athletes	44
Antonia L. Baum
Introduction	44
Epidemiology	45
The Role of Sports in the Genesis of Eating Disorders and Sports-Specific Eating Disorders	46
Eating Disorders in the Male Athlete	48
The Female Athlete Triad	49
Treatment	49
Future Research	51
6 Personality and Personality Disorders in Athletes	53
Heba M. Fakher M. Hendawy and Ezzat Abdelazeem A. Awad
Introduction	53
Personality Traits in Athletes	54
Perfectionism	56
Anger and Aggression	57
Athletic Identity	57
Personality Disorders in Athletes	58
Case Studies	60
Summary	62
7 Assessing and Treating Depression in Athletes	65
David A. Baron, Steven H. Baron, Joshua Tompkins, and Aslihan Polat
Introduction	65
Defining Depression	66
Symptoms and Presentation	66
Diagnostic Issues	67
Diagnostic Tools	68
Treatment	69
Special Considerations	71
Conclusion	76

8	Suicide in Athletes	79
	Antonia L. Baum
	Introduction	79
	Etiology	80
	Retirement	81
	Psychological Traits	81
	Substance Abuse/Anabolic Steroid Abuse	82
	Axis I Psychopathology	83
	Pressure to Win	84
	Sexual Abuse	85
	Homosexuality	85
	Firearms	85
	Cultural Influences	85
	Prevention	86
	Sports as Therapy	86
	Future Research	86
9	Concussion in Sports	89
	David A. Baron, Claudia L. Reardon, Jeremy DeFranco, and Steven H. Baron
	Introduction	89
	What is Concussion and Traumatic Brain Injury?	90
	Pathophysiology of Concussion	91
	Diagnosis of Concussion	91
	Epidemiology and Etiology of Concussion	93
	Prevention of Concussion	93
	Post-concussion Syndrome	94
	Second Impact Syndrome	94
	Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy	95
	Future Research	98
10	Posttraumatic Stress in Athletes	102
	Thomas Wenzel and Li Jing Zhu
	General Aspects	102
	Risk Factors	105
	Other Research on Diagnosis of Posttraumatic Stress Symptoms in Athletes	107
	Further Specific Reactions to Extreme Stress in Sport	107
	Relevance	109
	Clinical Considerations and Interventions	110
	Conclusions	111
	PART TWO: TREATMENT APPROACHES AND THERAPEUTIC ISSUES WITH ATHLETES	115
11	Psychotherapeutic Treatment of Athletes and Their Significant Others	117
	Mark A. Stillman, Eva C. Ritvo, and Ira D. Glick
	Introduction	117

The Athlete-Patient	118
Psychotherapy with the Athlete-Patient: Unique Challenges	121
Conclusion	122
12 Mindfulness, Attention, and Flow in the Treatment of Affective Disorders in Athletes	124
Brandon J. Cornejo
Introduction	124
Mindfulness	125
Flow	126
Attention in Sports	127
Mindfulness, Exercise, and Mental Health	128
Bridging the Gap between Flow and Mindfulness – Developing a Treatment Approach	128
Conclusions	129
13 Performance Enhancement and the Sports Psychiatrist	132
Michael T. Lardon and Michael W. Fitzgerald
Introduction	132
Motivation and Goal Setting	133
Maximizing Cognition and Emotion in Competitive Environments	136
Attentional Focus and Mental Imagery	139
Positive Psychology, Peak Performance, and the Athletic Zone	140
Summary	145
14 Applied Sports Psychology in Worldwide Sport: Table Tennis and Tennis	147
Kathy Toon, Dora Kurimay, and Tamás Kurimay
Introduction	147
Tennis and Table Tennis: Examples of Worldwide Sports	148
The Game Face Routine	149
The Game Face Pyramid	153
Recommendations and Conclusions	155
15 The Use of Psychiatric Medication by Athletes	157
Claudia L. Reardon and Robert M. Factor
Introduction	157
Antidepressants	158
Anxiolytics and Sedative-Hypnotics	159
Stimulants	161
Mood Stabilizers and Antipsychotics	162
Recommendations and Conclusions	162
PART THREE: PSYCHOSOCIAL ISSUES AFFECTING ATHLETES	167
16 Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	169
Saul I. Marks
What is Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport?	169
Prevalence of Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	170

Perpetrators of Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	170
Risk Factors for Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	170
Physical and Psychological Consequences of Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	173
Physical Consequences and Medical Presentations of Sexual Harassment and Abuse in Sport	173
Psychological Consequences of SHA in Sport	174
Specific Psychological Consequences and Medical Presentations Seen in Sport in General	175
Prevention by Understanding the Coach–Athlete Relationship	175
The Team Doctor’s Role in Prevention of SHA	176
Leadership from the International Olympic Committee	176
Clinical Approach to Disclosure	176
Conclusion	177
17 The Role of Culture in Sport	179
Claudia L. Reardon, David A. Baron, Steven H. Baron, Bulent Coskun, and Ugur Cakir
Multiculturalism	181
Specific Examples of Important Cultural Issues in Sport	181
Stigma and Access to Psychiatric Treatment Around the World	182
Epidemiology of Mental Illness in Athletes Across Different Cultures	183
Women, Sport, and Culture	184
Conclusions	186
18 Ethical Issues in Sports Psychiatry	188
David A. Baron, Joshua Tompkins, Sally Mohamed, and Samir Abolmagd
Introduction: The Evolution of Medical Ethics	188
Modern Medical Ethics	189
Medical Ethics Around the World	190
Ethical Issues in Psychiatry	191
Mental Health in the Athletic Arena	192
Sports Psychiatry: A Newcomer to the Field	193
Ethics of other Sports Health-Care Professions	193
Ethical Challenges for the Sports Psychiatrist	195
Conclusion	197
PART FOUR: THE FIELD OF SPORTS PSYCHIATRY	201
19 Sports Psychiatrists Working in College Athletic Departments	203
Eric D. Morse
Background	203
Design	204
Budget	204
Who is Being Served	205
Confidentiality	205
Boundaries	205
Improving Utilization with a Team Assistance Program Model	206

x Contents

Treatment Issues	209
Part of the Sports Medicine Team	211
Location	211
Conclusion	213
20 Sports Psychiatry: Current Status and Challenges	215
Ira D. Glick, Thomas Newmark, and Claudia L. Reardon
Background	215
Evolution of the Field	216
Challenges for the Field	216
The Role of Professional Sports Psychiatry Organizations	217
Index	219