

Table of Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
About the Authors	xvii
About the Contributors	xix

Section I.

An Overview of Multicultural and Social Justice Counseling

• • •

Chapter 1
Multiculturalism and Social Justice: A Revolutionary Force in Counseling and Psychology		3
Chapter 2
Five Forces in Counseling and Psychology		17
Chapter 3
The Complexities of Identity		35
Chapter 4
Counselor–Advocate–Scholar Model: Merging Multiculturalism and Social Justice		51
Chapter 5
Worldview and Identity Development Manivong J. Ratts, Paul B. Pedersen, and Alexa Wayman		59

Section II.

Developing Multicultural and Social Justice Competence

• • •

Chapter 6
Using Appropriate Terminology		85

Chapter 7
Developing Multicultural Competence		89
Chapter 8
Developing Advocacy Competence		105
Chapter 9
Addressing Resistance and Gaining Buy-In for Multiculturalism and Social Justice		117

Section III.

Addressing Individual and Systemic Oppression

• • •

Addressing Racism in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 10
Counseling Clients From Asian and Pacific Island Heritages		127
Catherine Y. Chang, C. Peeper McDonald, and Caroline O'Hara
Chapter 11
Counseling African Americans		143
S. Kent Butler and M. Ann Shillingford-Butler
Chapter 12
Counseling Native Americans and Social Justice		157
Timothy C. Thomason
Chapter 13
Counseling Latin@s From a Social Justice Perspective		179
Edil Torres-Rivera and Manivong J. Ratts
Chapter 14
Counseling Multiracial Individuals and Families		193
Kelley R. Kenney and Mark E. Kenney

Addressing Heterosexism in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 15
Social Justice Counseling Practices: Affirming Queer Pluralism With LGBTQ Clients		211
Julian Rafferty McCullough and Alexander C. Winninghoff

Addressing Transgender Oppression in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 16
Counseling Transgender Clients		229
Varunee Farii Sangganjanavanich

Addressing Sexism in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 17
Counseling Women	245
Jennifer L. Pepperell, Jennifer Londgren, and Laura A. Maki

Addressing Classism in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 18
A Social Justice Perspective on Counseling and Poverty	259
Rebecca Reed and Laura Smith

Addressing Religion and Spirituality in Counseling and Psychology

Chapter 19
Engaged Spirituality: A Heart for Social Justice	275
Craig S. Cashwell and Jodi L. Bartley
Index	289