

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: formation and form	1
Exposition: the vision that informed the first edition	1
Transition: considerations and collaboration	2
Development: music therapy in a new key	3
Recapitulation: outline of the new edition	4
1 The growth of music therapy	5
Introduction	5
The emergence of music therapy in the United Kingdom and the United States	5
Paths of development in contemporary music therapy	10
Further historical and cultural reference points	12
What is music therapy?	15
Redefining music therapy	17
Activities in music therapy	19
Areas of music therapy practice	22
The evolution of a new professional discipline	24
Concluding points	27
2 Music therapy examples and perspectives	29
Introduction	29
An individual session	29
A group session	33
Tools for thinking about music therapy	37
Music therapy in medical perspectives	38
Music therapy in behavioural perspectives	40
Music therapy in psychodynamic perspectives	41
Music therapy in humanistic perspectives	43

vi Contents

Music therapy in transpersonal perspectives 45
Music therapy in culture-centred perspectives 47
Music therapy in music-centred perspectives 49
Concluding points 51

3 Sound, music and music therapy 54

Introduction 54
Music as resource for action 55
Timbre 57
Pitch 60
Loudness 62
Duration 65
Silence 68
Rhythm 70
Melody 73
Harmony 75
Concluding points 78

4 Music therapy and child health 80

The young child: sounds, rhythms and music 80
Music therapy with a baby and her family: the story of Alex 83
Synchrony, communication, attachment and participation 85
Music therapy contexts and related research: part one 88
Music therapy with a pre-school child: the story of M 90
Attunement and play 96
Music therapy contexts and related research: part two 99
Concluding points 102

5 Music therapy and adolescent health 104

Young, wild and free? Adolescents and music 104
The practice of music therapy with adolescents 107
Gregorio's process in music therapy: the first phase 110
Gregorio's process in music therapy: the second phase 113
Gregorio's process in music therapy: the third phase 115
Researching experiences and effects 117
Reflections on emotional aspects of music therapy 120
Working with human rights and social resources 122
Concluding points 124

6 Music therapy and adult health 125

The adult musical profile 125
Music therapy and the many pathways of adult life 126

	Music therapy and the adult with learning disabilities	128
	Approaches to music therapy and adult mental health	132
	Research on music therapy and adult mental health	135
	Music therapy in the everyday world of rehabilitation	137
	Interdisciplinary research on music and rehabilitation	140
	Music therapy, adult cancer care and palliative care	143
	Concluding points	147
7	Music therapy and older adult health	149
	'Crown of life' . . . nothing left to lose? Older adults and music	149
	Music therapy practice and research with older adults	151
	The story of Jon's first encounter with music therapy	154
	Musical and emotional encounters in professional context	157
	Aurora: the story of a senior choir	160
	Music, care and social capital in a world of conflicts	164
	Concluding points	167
8	The profession of music therapy: a resource for the community	169
	Introduction	169
	A day in the life of a music therapist	170
	The professional as responsible member of society	173
	Sustaining collaborative cross-professional work	177
	Promoting music as a resource for health and well-being	181
	Further challenges to the contemporary music therapist	183
	Possibilities of the music therapy profession	185
	Concluding points	190
9	The discipline of music therapy: towards an identity of hybridity?	192
	Introduction: Orpheus as emblem	192
	The discipline as the 'invisible college' of music therapy	195
	Some tensions and contradictions	196
	Reflections on the evidence-based practice debate	201
	Reflections on challenges of representation	204
	Towards a culture of hybridity?	206
	Developing the discipline of music therapy	209
	Concluding points	213
	Epilogue: music therapy: an art beyond words?	216
	References	221
	Name index	245
	Subject index	248