

Contents

1 Introduction	1
Normal Identity	1
Identity Crisis and Identity Diffusion	1
2 Description of the Disorder	3
Terminology and Definition	3
Definition and Criteria of Personality Disorders
According to ICD-10	4
Definition of Personality Disorders According to DSM-IV-TR	5
Definition and Criteria of Personality Disorders According to DSM-IV-TR	5
Transition to DSM-5	6
Epidemiology	7
Course and Prognosis	9
Diagnostic Procedures and Differential Diagnosis	9
Literature	11
3 Theoretical Models and Rationale	13
Models of the Disorder	13
Neurobiological Vulnerability	14
Sequence of Growth and Implications for Continued Development	15
Attachment	16
Regulation	17
Theory Underlying the Individual Psychotherapy	18
Object Relations Theory	18
Developmental Theory	21
Identity	22
Further Concepts	24
Emerging Adulthood	27
Theory Underlying the Environmental Interventions	35
Literature	36

4	Diagnosis and Treatment Indications	39
	Structure and Process of the Initial Patient Contact	40
	Pathways of Communication	40
	Diagnostic Process	42
	How Adolescents Arrive at Your Office	42
	Management of the “Urgency” of the Referral	42
	Diagnostic Procedures and Interviews	43
	Psychiatric Diagnosis	43
	Structural Diagnosis	43
	Identity Assessment	46
	Systematic Evaluation of the Domains	48
	Standard Assessment Battery Recommendations	51
	Treatment Indications and Contraindications	52
	Indications for Adjunctive Treatment	53
	Treatment Refusal	54
	Treatment Contraindications	54
	Literature	56
5	Treatment	59
	Aims and Goals	59
	Specific Aim	59
	Clearing Blockages	59
	Planting Seeds	61
	Therapist Variables, Stance, and Attitudes	61
	Considerations: The Air Within Which the Treatment Thrives	61
	Therapist Characteristics and Attitudes	62
	Therapist Stance	62
	Maintaining Objectivity	64
	Preparatory Phase and Education	64
	Confidentiality	65
	Shift in Family Dynamic	66
	Treatment Limitations	66
	Role of Family in Treatment	67
	Psychoeducation	67
	Factors That May Contribute to Treatment Interruptions	68
	General Parenting Strategies	69
	Tasks of Adolescence	71
	Contract Setting	72
	Contracting Phase	72
	Individual Contract	73
	Family Contract	73
	Threats to Treatment	75
	Strategies for the Treatment	76
	Session Frequency: Individual and Parent/Family	77
	Length of Treatment	78
	Direct Interventions	78

Dual Treatment Focus: Acute/Focal and Long Term (Structural Change)	79
Patient Driven Versus Model Driven	80
Tactics	80
Maintaining the Treatment Frame	81
Selecting the Dominant Affect	81
Regulating Affect in Sessions	84
Intervention: Tactics	84
Transference and Countertransference	85
Modification of Transference Analysis with Adolescents	86
Techniques	87
Channels of Communication	87
Clarification	88
The Process of Clarification with Adolescents	89
Confrontation	91
Interpretation	93
Working with the Families	100
Practical Issues Around Treatment	102
Parent Strategy for Tolerating Negative Affect	102
Direct Environmental Interventions	104
Home Plan	104
Additional Direct Environmental Interventions	108
Adjunctive Psychopharmacological Treatment	108
AIT Summary	109
Literature	111
6 Adolescent Identity Treatment (AIT) Case Illustration	113
Initial Evaluation	113
Structural Interview	114
Initial Response to Interview Questions	115
Precipitating Events and Current Difficulties	115
History	116
Further Interview Questions	117
Identity Assessment: Description of Self and (Important) Other	118
Parent/Family Assessment	118
Emergent Contract and Treatment Issues for the Family	119
Collateral Sources	120
Diagnostic Impressions	121
Initial Treatment Recommendations	122
Contracting	123
Anna's Motivation for Treatment	123
Contracting Process	124
Treatment	125
Anna's Treatment Course	125
Implementing Home Plan with Parents	132
Working Through of Splitting in Self-Representation	133

Individual Treatment Summary	137
Parent's Treatment Course	137
Summary of the Case Illustration	145
Literature	146
7 Efficacy	147
Empirical Support for the Efficacy of AIT	147
TFP Efficacy Study (Clarkin JF, Foelsch PA, Levy KN, Hull JW, Delaney JC, Kernberg OF 2001).	147
Randomized Clinical Trials of TFP	147
Modifications of Adult Treatment for Adolescents	148
AIT in Adolescents	149
Chart Review Study	149
New York Pilot Study	154
Summary of Support for the AIT Treatment Model.	156
Literature	156
8 Training and Supervision	159
Training	159
Therapist Recommendations	160
Training Process	161
Index	163