
CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xv

PART I

Introduction	1
---------------------	----------

Chapter 1_____

The History, Politics, and Social Environment of Clinical Psychology	3
---	----------

A Flying Carpet Tour of Clinical Psychology	5
---	---

Back to the Future	9
--------------------	---

Major Organizations Concerned with Scientific Practice	10
--	----

Training Philosophy in Clinical Psychology	12
--	----

Student Characteristics	14
-------------------------	----

Licensure in Clinical Psychology	15
----------------------------------	----

The Practicing Role of a Clinical Psychologist	15
--	----

Preview of the Text	16
---------------------	----

Chapter 2_____

The Fields of Clinical Psychology	19
--	-----------

Elements of a Clinical Psychology	21
-----------------------------------	----

Training Qualifications and Ethics Regulations	25
--	----

Specialties in Clinical Psychology	30
------------------------------------	----

Summary: Making the Right Choices for You	52
---	----

Appendix: Professional Societies in Clinical Psychology	53
---	----

Chapter 3_____

Working with Cultural Diversity	55
--	-----------

Cultural Competence as Fundamental Practice	56
---	----

The Diverse People of the United States	57
---	----

Common Terminology	59
--------------------	----

Attunement to Cultural Diversity in Clinical Context	61
--	----

Culturally Sensitive Practice	70
Summary	82
Appendix: Resources for Emerging Information on Diversity	82
Chapter 4 _____
Clinical Research and Outcome Assessment	83
Clinical Research and Research Methods	84
Therapeutic Interventions: Are They All the Same?	94
Summary	100
Chapter 5 _____
Why People Become Patients	103
Understanding Why People Become Patients	104
Specific Types of Problems	113
Summary	137
PART II
Basic Techniques for Clinicians—Assessment	139
Chapter 6 _____
Introduction to Assessment: The Biopsychosocial Systems Model of Human Behavior	141
Goals of Assessment	142
Specific Types of Assessment	149
The Biopsychosocial Systems Model of Understanding Human Behavior	156
Summary	166
Chapter 7 _____
A Scientific Approach to Assessment and Methods of Gathering Data	167
The Scientific Method	168
Methods of Gathering Data	182
Summary	193

Chapter 8
<hr/>
The Logistics of the Assessment and a Closer Look at Interviewing	195
Strategic Logistics and a Problem-Solving Approach	196
Procedural Logistics and Clinical Skills	202
Summary	233
PART III
Basic Techniques for Clinicians—Intervention	235
Chapter 9
<hr/>
Developing a Case Conceptualization	237
What Is Case Conceptualization?	239
Functional Purpose of a Case Conceptualization	240
Conceptual Approaches	241
The Conceptualization Process	242
Summary	254
Chapter 10
<hr/>
Developing a Treatment Plan: Therapeutic Alliance and Collaborative Goals	257
Roles of Patient and Therapist	258
Goals and Tasks of Treatment	267
Building and Maintaining the Therapeutic Relationship	272
Summary	280
Chapter 11
<hr/>
Therapeutic Methods: Building Psychotherapy Skills	281
Applying Specific Procedures	282
Interpersonal and Systems Interventions	283
Affective Interventions	292
Behavioral Interventions	299
Cognitive Interventions	310
Summary	317

Chapter 12
Understanding, Facilitating, and Evaluating Change	321
Understanding Change	322
Facilitating Change	337
Evaluating Change	340
Summary	347
Chapter 13
Impediments to Change	349
Definitions of Resistance	351
Bordin's Model of the Working Alliance	353
Impediments to Treatment and Change	353
Summary	381
Chapter 14
Effective Termination	383
Rationale for a Termination Strategy	384
Effective Termination Strategy	387
Competence and Professional Standards of Care	394
Applied Skills for a Sound Strategy	399
Summary	417
PART IV
What Every Clinician Needs to Know	419
Chapter 15
Self-Care and Ethics: Applying the Techniques of Positive Psychology	421
Ethics, Impairment, Personal Problems, and Burnout	423
Therapists' Reactions to Clients: Normal to Problematic and What to Do about It	432
Positive Psychology	444

Summary	448
Appendix A: Self-Help for Stress Management and Relaxation	449
Appendix B: Self-Help and Self-Exploration References on Positive Psychology	450
References	451
About the Authors	465
Author Index	469
Subject Index	473