

Contents

Contributors	vii
Foreword	xiii
Introduction Soo Downe, Sheena Byrom and Louise Simpson	1
Part I: Leadership	5
Introduction to Part I Sheena Byrom
Chapter 1 Midwifery Leadership: Theory, Practice and Potential Sheena Byrom and Lesley Kay	7
Chapter 2 Transformational Leadership and Midwifery: A Nested Narrative Review Sheena Byrom, Anna Byrom and Soo Downe	23
Chapter 3 What Do Leaders Do to Influence Maternity Services? Midwifery Leadership As Applied to Case Studies Sheena Byrom, Sue Henry, Mary Newburn, Cathy Warwick and Ngai Fen Cheung	44
Chapter 4 Leadership for Effective Change in Mother and Infant Health: Lessons Learned from a Programme of Work on Breastfeeding Mary J. Renfrew	63
Part II: Expertise	85
Introduction to Part II Louise Simpson

Chapter 5	The Notion of Expertise Soo Downe and Louise Simpson	87
Chapter 6	Expertise in Intrapartum Midwifery Practice Louise Simpson and Soo Downe	102
Chapter 7	Enhancing Expertise and Skills Through Education Denis Walsh	125
Chapter 8	What is a Skilled Birth Attendant? Insights from South America Anne Davenport	135
Part III: Collaboration		153
	Introduction to Part III Soo Downe
Chapter 9	Collaboration: Theories, Models and Maternity Care Soo Downe and Kenny Finlayson	155
Chapter 10	Case Studies of Collaboration in the UK and China Ngai Fen Cheung and Anita Fleming	180
Chapter 11	Using Collaborative Theories to Reduce Caesarean Section Rates and Improve Maternal and Infant Well-being Alison Brodrick, Nicky Mason, Janet Baldwin and Sophie Cowley	195
Chapter 12	Bringing It All Together Soo Downe, Louise Simpson and Sheena Byrom	221
Index		227