

Contents

Preface ix

Foreword - Michael Stefanek xi

Foreword - Leslie Fallowfield xiii

Contributors xv

Section A Introduction to communication studies in cancer and palliative medicine

- 1 The history of communication skills knowledge and training 3
Mack Lipkin
- 2 The art of teaching communication skills 13
Stewart M Dunn
- 3 Theoretical models of communication skills training 27
Richard Brown and Carma L Bylund
- 4 Shared treatment decision-making and the use of decision-aids 41
Cathy Charles and Amiram Gafni
- 5 The ethics of communication in cancer and palliative care 51
Laura A Siminoff
- 6 Gender, power, and non-verbal communication 63
Marianne Schmid Mast, Christina Klöckner, and Judith A Hall
- 7 Medical student training in communication skills 75
Joshua Hauser and Gregory Makoul
- 8 Enhancing cancer patients' participation in medical consultations 87
Donald J Cegala and Dana Eisenberg

Section B A core curriculum for communication skills training for oncology and palliative care

- 9 Breaking bad news 101
Walter F Baile and Patricia A Parker
- 10 Discussing prognosis and communicating risk 113
Phyllis N Butow, Martin HN Tattersall, and Martin Stockler
- 11 Communication training to achieve shared treatment decisions 127
David W Kissane
- 12 Responding to difficult emotions 135
Jennifer Philip and David W Kissane

- 13 Denial and communication 147
Linda Sheahan and Simon Wein
- 14 Communicating with relatives/companions about cancer care 157
Terrance L Albrecht, Susan S Eggly, and John C Ruckdeschel
- 15 Conducting a family meeting 165
Nessa Coyle and David W Kissane
- 16 Communication about coping as a survivor 177
Linda E Carlson and Barry D Bultz
- 17 Dealing with cancer recurrence 191
Lidia Schapira
- 18 Communication about transitioning patients to palliative care 203
Josephine M Clayton and David W Kissane
- 19 End-of-life communication training 215
Tomer Levin and Joseph S Weiner

Section C A specialty curriculum for oncology

- 20 Enrolment in clinical trials 231
Richard Brown and Terrance L Albrecht
- 21 Working as a multidisciplinary team 245
Jane Turner
- 22 Communicating genetic risk 259
Elizabeth Lobb and Clara Gaff
- 23 Rehabilitative and salvage surgery 269
Andrea Pusic, Rachel Bell, and Diana Harcourt
- 24 Discussing unproven therapies 281
Penelope Schofield, Justine Diggins, Sue Hegarty, Catherine Charleson, Rita Marigliani, Caroline Nehill, and Michael Jefford
- 25 The effect of internet use on the doctor–cancer patient relationship 293
Carma L Bylund and Jennifer A Gueguen
- 26 Promoting treatment adherence 303
Kelly B Haskard and M Robin DiMatteo
- 27 Communication strategies and skills for optimal pain control 315
Melanie Lovell and Frances Boyle
- 28 Discussing adverse outcomes with patients 327
Thomas H Gallagher and Afaf Girgis
- 29 Clinical perspectives on shared decision-making 339
Martin HN Tattersall
- 30 Audio-recording important consultations for patients and their families—putting evidence into practice 351
Thomas F Hack and Lesley F Degner

- 31 Working with interpreters and achieving culturally competent communication 361
Steven Klimidis and Harry Minas
- 32 Challenges in communicating with ethnically diverse populations 375
Bejoy C Thomas, Joshua J Lounsberry, and Linda E Carlson
- 33 Intercultural communication in palliative care 389
James Hallenbeck and Vyjeyanthi S Periyakoil
- 34 Communicating about infertility risks 399
Zeev Rosberger, Jeanne Carter, Marie Achille, Barry D Bultz, and Peter Chan
- 35 Communicating about sexuality in cancer care 409
John W Robinson and Joshua J Lounsberry

Section D Communication issues across the disciplines

- 36 The challenges and rewards of communication skills training for oncology and palliative care nurses in the United Kingdom 425
Sandra Winterburn and Susie Wilkinson
- 37 Ambulatory care nurses responding to depression 439
Anthony De La Cruz, Richard Brown, and Steve Passik
- 38 Social work support in settings of crisis 449
Carrie Lethborg and Grace Christ
- 39 Communication in cancer radiology 459
Kimberly Feigin and Laura Liberman
- 40 Communication in surgical oncology 473
Alexandra Heerdt, Bernard Park, and Patrick Bolland
- 41 Communication in non-surgical oncology 479
Lai Cheng Yew and E Jane Maher
- 42 Palliative medicine: communication to promote life near the end of life 491
Ilora G Finlay and Nicola Pease
- 43 Communication issues in pastoral care and chaplaincy 503
Peter Speck and Christopher Herbert
- 44 Communication in oncology pharmacy: the challenge of treatment adherence 509
Venetia Bourrier and Brent Schacter
- 45 Psychosocial programme development 521
Barry D Bultz, Paul B Jacobsen, and Matthew Loscalzo
- 46 Communication challenges with the elderly 531
Ron Adelman and Michelle Green
- 47 Issues for cognitively impaired elderly patients 547
Andrew Roth and Christian Nelson
- 48 Communicating with children when a parent is dying 557
Cynthia W Moore, Michele Pengelly, and Paula K Rauch

49 Creative arts in oncology 573*Marilyn Hundleby, Kate Collie, and Linda E CarlsonSection E Education and training*50 Learner-centred communication training 583Suzanne M Kurtz and Lara J Cooke51 Facilitating skills practice in communication role-play sessions: essential elements and training facilitators 597Carma L Bylund, Richard Brown, Barbara Lubrano di Ciccone, and Lyuba Konopasek52 The role of the actor in medical education 607Paul Heinrich53 Training patients to reach their communication goals: a concordance perspective 619Carma L Bylund, Thomas A D'Agostino, and Betty ChewningSection F International initiatives in communication training*54 The Oncotalk model 631Robert M Arnold, Anthony T Back, Walter F Baile, Kelly Fryer-Edwards, and James A Tulsky55 The Swiss model 641F Stiefel, J Bernhard, G Bianchi, L Dietrich, Ch Hürny, A Kiss, and B Wössmer56 The Australian model 649Caroline Nehill and Alison Evans57 The United Kingdom general practitioner and palliative care model 659Simon Noble, Nicola Pease, and Ilora G Finlay58 Communication skills training and research: the Brussels experience 671Isabelle Merckaert, Yves Libert, and Darius RazaviSection G Research in cancer communication*59 Evaluating communication skills training courses 683Lyuba Konopasek, Marcy Rosenbaum, John Encandela, and Kathy Cole-Kelly60 Qualitative approaches to clinician–patient communication 695Felicia Roberts61 Issues in Coding Cancer Consultations: interaction analysis systems 707Phyllis N Butow and Sarah Ford62 The Roter Interaction Analysis System (RIAS): applicability within the context of cancer and palliative care 717Debra Roter*