

Contents

Author biography	ix
1 Overview of bipolar disorder	1
Definitions	1
Types of mood episode	3
Epidemiology	6
References	8
2 Psychosocial consequences	11
Quality of life	11
Comorbidity	14
The need for early intervention	17
References	18
3 Etiology and disease course	23
Etiology	23
Course of illness	27
Signs and symptoms	32
Early warning signs	34
Prognosis	35
References	37
4 Assessment and diagnosis	41
Criteria for diagnosis	41
Diagnostic challenges	48
Screening tools	51
Special considerations	55
References	58
5 Suicide risk	63
Assessing suicide risk in clinical practice	63
Strategies to reduce suicide risk	64
References	70

6 Overview of management options	73
Treatment principles and guidelines	73
Goals of intervention	77
Producing a treatment plan	77
Assessment and treatment issues	78
Patient monitoring	82
Psychotherapy	88
Pharmacological options	91
References	92
7 Pharmacological management of depressive episodes	95
Acute depressive episodes	95
Long-term maintenance therapy	101
References	105
8 Pharmacological management of manic episodes	109
Acute manic, hypomanic, and mixed episodes	109
Psychotic symptoms	120
Acute episodes in children and adolescents	121
Long-term maintenance therapy	122
References	126
9 Treatment-resistant bipolar disorder	135
Refractory mania	135
Mixed states	136
Chronic depression	136
Rapid cycling	137
References	138
10 Psychosocial interventions	141
Cognitive-behavioral therapy	141
Psychoeducation	143
Family-focused therapy	145
Interpersonal and social rhythm therapy	147
References	148