
Contents

Contributors	ix
Foreword Philip Larkin	xiii
Introduction Sheila Payne, Jane Seymour and Christine Ingleton	1

PART ONE

Encountering illness	17
1 Overview Sheila Payne and Jane Seymour	19
2 History and culture in the rise of palliative care David Clark	39
3 Involving or using? User involvement in palliative care Tony Stevens	55
4 Referral patterns and access to specialist palliative care Julia Addington-Hall	71
5 Dying Places and preferences Carol Thomas	91
6 An uncertain journey Coping with transitions, survival and recurrence Margaret O'Connor	106
7 Communication Patient and family Sue Duke and Christopher Bailey	121
8 Clinical assessment and measurement Michael Bennett and José Closs	145

9 Adapting complementary therapies for palliative care	162
Ann Carter and Peter Mackereth

PART TWO

Transitions into the terminal phase	179
--	-----

10 Overview	181
Jane Seymour and Christine Ingleton

11 Good for the soul?	212
The spiritual dimension of hospice and palliative care
Michael Wright

12 Working with difficult symptoms	232
Jessica Corner

13 Pain	252
Theories, evaluation and management
Silvia Paz and Jane Seymour

14 Balancing feelings and cognitions	290
Mari Lloyd-Williams and John Hughes

15 Psychiatric aspects of palliative care	308
William Lee and Matthew Hotopf

16 Working with family care-givers in a palliative care setting	326
Paula Smith and Julie Skilbeck

17 Personhood and identity in palliative care	347
Jenny Hockey

18 No way in	362
Including disadvantaged population and patient groups at the end of life
Jonathan Koffman and Margaret Camps

19 Palliative care in institutions	383
Jeanne Samson Katz

20 Treatment decisions at the end of life	402
A conceptual framework
Bert Broeckaert

PART THREE
Loss and bereavement	423
21 Overview	425
Sheila Payne
22 Nursing care at the time of death	449
Carol Komaromy
23 The care and support of bereaved people	460
Mark Cobb
24 Risk assessment and adult bereavement services	473
Marilyn Relf
25 Bereavement support services	489
David Kissane
26 Helping children and families facing bereavement in palliative care settings	507
Liz Rolls
<hr/>
PART FOUR
Contemporary issues	525
27 Overview	527
Christine Ingleton and Jane Seymour
28 Professional boundaries in palliative care	554
Karen Cox and Veronica James
29 The cost of caring
Surviving the culture of niceness, occupational stress and coping strategies	573
Sanchia Aranda
30 Education and scholarship in palliative care	591
A European nursing perspective
Philip Larkin
31 Information and communications technology (ICT) in palliative care	608
Peter Bath, Barbara Sen and Kendra Albright
32 Research in palliative care	625
Gunn Grande and Christine Ingleton

33 Practice development in palliative care Katherine Froggatt and Mary Turner	643
34 Policy and palliative care Jo Hockley	660
35 Palliative care in resource-poor countries Jennifer Hunt	680
Conclusion Sheila Payne, Jane Seymour and Christine Ingleton	695
Index	705