
Contents

Foreword xiii

Preface xv

1. Introduction 1

PART I

2. The Recovery Approach in Mental Health and Addiction 7
 The Paradigm Shift From Medical Model to Recovery Model 9
 Recovery Philosophy 16
 Peer Helpers 17
 Recovery Groups 19

3. How Recovery Groups Differ From Other Kinds of Groups 22
 Self-Help Ethos and Recovery Philosophy 23
 Types of Groups 24
 Self-Help and Support Groups 24
 Psychotherapy and Task Groups 25
 Ideal Types 26
 Choosing a Group Type 27

4. Groups for Addiction and Mental Health Conditions 30
 Twelve-Step Groups for Addiction 31
 Non-Twelve-Step Groups for Addiction 34
 Twelve-Step Groups for Mental Health Conditions 35
 Non-Twelve-Step Groups for Mental Health Conditions 36
 Groups for Families and Friends 38

PART 2

5. Connecting With Independent Self-Help Recovery Groups	43
Founders	44
Starting a Local Chapter	45
Linking People With Self-Help	46
Professional Leadership of Self-Help Groups	51
Ethical Issues Related to Linking to Self-Help by Professionals	53
6. Facilitating Support Groups	57
The Preformation Stage	58
Who Needs the Group?	58
What Kind of Program Do You Want?	58
Do You Have Enough Potential Members?	58
Will the Group Be Time-Limited, or Will It Continue Indefinitely?	59
Do You Have an Appropriate Meeting Place?	59
Who Will Lead the Group—a Member or a Professional/Staff Person?	59
Leadership	60
The Forming Stage	61
The Storming Stage	63
The Norming Stage	63
The Performing Stage	64
Problems That Come Up in Support Groups	65
Member Attrition and Absences	65
The Monopolizer	66
Bringing Outsiders to the Meeting	66
Inappropriate Emotional Expressions	67
Unwillingness to Risk in the Group	67
Leader Burnout	68
Postmeeting Upsets	68
Coming to the Meeting Drunk or High on Drugs	68
Diverse Populations Not Represented	69
Confessions of Criminal Behavior	69
7. How Recovery Groups Help	71
Cohesiveness	71
Universality	72
Instillation of Hope	72
Support	73

Giving Information and Advice	74
Achieving a Sense of Belonging	75
Making a Difference and Having a Sense of Mattering	76
Teaching Coping Methods	76
Identity Transformation	77
Becoming Empowered	79
Achieving Insight	79
Reframing	80
New Way of Life and Redefinition of Self	81
Encouraging Helping Factors	82
Avoiding Unhelpful Factors	82
 8. Analyzing a Group's Climate, Philosophy, and Structure	 88
Social Climate in Groups	88
Group Philosophy or Worldview	91
Group Structure	93
Twelve-Step Meeting Structure	96
 9. Who Needs a Group? The Process of Affiliation	 99
Who Comes Back	100
Being an Extrovert and Need for Affiliation	100
Openness to Spirituality	101
The Importance of Group Fit	101
Affiliation as a Process	103
Stages of Change-Readiness	107
Processes of Change	107
 10. Four Models of Self-Help Recovery Groups	 112
Al-Anon Family Groups	112
History	112
Program	113
Research	119
Meeting Structure	119
Starting a Group	119
Recovery International	120
History	120
Program	120
Research	122

Meeting Structure	123
Starting a Group	124
Schizophrenics Anonymous	124
History	124
Program	125
Research	126
Meeting Structure	126
Starting a Group	127
Dual Recovery Anonymous	128
History	128
Meeting Structure	128
Starting a Group	128

PART 3

II. Recovery Groups and Advocacy	135
National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency	135
Advocacy, Anonymity, the First Step, and the Twelve Traditions	137
Recovery Community Organizations	141
National Alliance on Mental Illness	142
Consumer/Survivor Organizations	146
12. Housing, Employment, and Mutual Help	152
Fairweather Lodges	152
Founder	152
Founding Story	153
Program Today	154
Financing	156
Diffusion	156
Success Rates	157
Oxford Houses	158
Founder	158
Founding Story	158
Program Today	158
Financing	159
Diffusion	159
Success Rates	160
Fountain House	161
Founder	161

Founding Story	162
Program Today	163
Financing	165
Diffusion	165
Success Rates	165

13. Online Groups	169
Utility and Benefits of Online Groups and Meetings	171
Kinds of Participation	174
Positive Values	175
Disadvantages and Concerns	175
Areas of Uncertainty or Concern	177
The Danger of Exploitation	178

Conclusion	184
-------------------	-----

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	187
-----------------	-----

GLOSSARY	189
----------	-----

INDEX	193
-------	-----