

Contents

Contributors	xiii
Preface	xvii
Catherine Ingram Fogel and Nancy Fugate Woods
Acknowledgments	xix

PART I

Women and Their Lives

Chapter 1	Women and Their Health	3
	Mona T. Lydon-Rochelle and Nancy Fugate Woods
	Social Context	3
	Health Expenditures	7
	Health Status Indicators	7
	Globalization.	24
	The Future of Women's Health	24
Chapter 2	Women as Health Care Providers	29
	Diana Taylor, Carol J. Leppa, and Nancy Fugate Woods
	Health Care Services in the United States	29
	Women as Paid Health Care Providers	29
	Women as Paid Health Care Providers in the 21st Century: A Preferred Future.	41
	Women as Unpaid Health Care Providers.	43
	Summary	44
Chapter 3	Women and Health Care.	49
	Debbie Ward and Nancy Fugate Woods
	The Illness Care Nonsystem	49
	Diagnosis and Treatment for Women.	50
	Sexism and the Education of Health Professionals	55
	Sexism and Research on Women and Health.	56
	Health Care Issues and Arenas for Women.	59
	The Future	63

Chapter 4	Women’s Bodies	69
	Nancy Fugate Woods and Aileen MacLaren Loranger
	Women’s Anatomy	69
	Physiologic Influences of the Endocrine System and Hormonal Controls	79
	Sexual Differentiation and Development	80
	Puberty	82
	The Menstrual Cycle.	84
	Menopause	90
	Biological Sex-Based Differences Beyond Reproduction	93
	Summary	94
Chapter 5	Young Women’s Health	97
	Janet Cady
	An Overview of Adolescence in the United States	97
	Factors Influencing Adolescent Development	103
	Health Services for Adolescents	108
	Young Women’s Health Problems.	112
Chapter 6	Mid-Life Women’s Health	121
	Nancy Fugate Woods and Ellen Sullivan Mitchell
	Mid-Life: Definitions and Perceptions	121
	Changing Biology: The Menopausal Transition and Beyond	124
	Physiologic Consequences of the Menopausal Transition	129
	Consequences of Reproductive Aging	130
	Assessment of Mid-Life Women’s Health	131
	Self-Management and Complementary and Allopathic Therapies	136
Chapter 7	Older Women’s Health.	149
	Barbara B. Cochrane and Heather M. Young
	Demographic and Economic Considerations.	150
	Contexts of Older Women’s Lives	152
	Age-Related Physical Changes	154
	Selected Health Issues for Older Women	155
	Healthy Aging and Health Promotion	158
	Summary	160

PART II

Frameworks for Practice

Chapter 8	Feminist Frameworks for Nursing Practice With Women	167
	Cheryl L. Cooke
	Feminism	167
	Feminist Theory	168

	Traditional Perspectives in Feminist Theory	168
	Emerging Perspectives in Feminist Theory.	170
	Perspectives for Inquiry.	171
	Feminist Perspectives for Nursing Practice	174
	Person/Client	174
	Environments and Contexts.	175
	Health	176
	Nursing	176
	Feminist Models of Nursing Practice	177
	Structure and Process of the Relationship	180
Chapter 9	Well-Woman Assessment.	185
	Donna W. Roberson and Catherine Ingram Fogel
	Health History	185
	Special Adolescent Considerations.	189
	Special Older Woman Considerations	190
	Physical Examination	190
Chapter 10	Legal Issues in the Care of Women.	195
	Diane K. Kjervik
	Areas of Law Affecting Women	195
	Sources of Law	196
	Law as a Source of Empowerment	196
	Women as Research Subjects	196
	Domestic Violence and Rape	196
	Mental Health	197
	Abortion	197
	Drug Abuse During Pregnancy	198
	Child Care and Breast-Feeding	198
	Breast Implants	199
	HIV	199
	Strategies to Improve the Legal Status of Women	199
	Conclusion.	201

PART III

Health Promotion

Chapter 11	Healthy Practices: Nutrition.	205
	Betty Lucas
	The Nutrients—A Brief Review	205
	Nutritional Needs Throughout the Life Cycle	206
	Pregnancy	212
	Lactation.	221

	Nutrition-Related Concerns of Women	222
	Nutrition and Health Promotion	230
Chapter 12	Healthy Practices: Exercise Interventions	237
	Cheryl A. Cahill Lawrence
	Exercise and Cardiovascular Risk Factors	237
	Effects of Exercise on Metabolism	243
	Effects of Exercise on Bones and Joints	246
	Effects of Exercise on Mood and Affect	247
	Exercise, the Menstrual Cycle, and Pregnancy	247
	Exercise Patterns and Prescriptions	249
Chapter 13	Mental Health	253
	Anne Hopkins Fishel
	Prevalence of Mental Illness	254
	Prevalence of Mental Illness in Women	254
	Why Gender Differences?	255
	Mood Disorders	255
	Anxiety Disorders	275
	Future Directions for Improving Women’s Mental Health	286
Chapter 14	Women’s Sexuality	295
	Catherine Ingram Fogel and Nancy Fugate Woods
	Sexuality and Sexual Health	295
	Women’s Sexual Response	297
	Sexuality Across the Life Span	298
	Sociocultural Influences on Sexuality and Sexual Health	300
	Sexual Health Care	300
	Sexual Health Care Interventions	302
	Sexual Health Challenges	303
	Sexual Dysfunctions	306
Chapter 15	Fertility Control	313
	Joellen W. Hawkins, Holly B. Fontenot, and Allyssa Harris
	Historical and Social Context	313
	Contraceptive Patterns and Practices	317
	Contraceptive Decision Making	318
	Family Planning Services	321
	Contraceptive Methods	322
Chapter 16	Preconceptional Health Promotion: A Focus for Prevention	339
	Merry-K. Moos
	Rationale for Preconceptional Health Promotion	339
	Progress in Changing the Prevention Paradigm	340
	Content of Preconceptional Care	342
	Moving the Agenda Forward	342

Threats to Health and Health Problems

Chapter 17	High-Risk Childbearing	349
	Catherine Ingram Fogel and Julie Smith Taylor
	Definition and Scope of the Problem	349
	Risk Factors	350
	Identification of Risk Status and Ongoing Risk Assessment	356
	Fetal Evaluation in High-Risk Pregnancy	363
	Nursing Management	367
	Conclusion	367
Chapter 18	Infertility	371
	Ellen Olshansky and Catherine Garner
	Incidence and Prevalence	371
	Trends and Patterns	371
	Assessment of and Diagnostic Approaches to Infertility	372
	Causes of Infertility	373
	Treatments for Infertility	381
	Human Responses to Infertility	382
	Future Directions	383
Chapter 19	The Challenge of Unintended Pregnancy	385
	Merry-K. Moos
	Unwanted, Unintended, and Mistimed Pregnancies	385
	Consequences of Unintended Pregnancies	386
	Influences of Contraceptive Effectiveness	386
	Issues in Initiation of and Adherence to Contraceptive Regimens	388
	Barriers to Effective Contraception	388
	Decreasing Unintendedness by Improving Patient Satisfaction and Compliance	389
	Frameworks for Providing Contraceptive Counseling	390
	Other Influences on Contraceptive Use and Adherence	391
	Developing a Research Agenda	392
Chapter 20	Perimenstrual Symptoms and Syndromes	397
	Diana Taylor, Judith A. Berg, and Catherine Ingram Fogel
	Perimenstrual Symptoms	397
	Premenstrual Symptoms and Symptom Clusters	398
	Life Cycle Variation	398
	Social Context and Cultural Variation	399
	Perimenstrual Normative Experience	399
	Perimenstrual Syndromes	400

	Perimenstrual Symptom Assessment	401
	Symptom Management	405
Chapter 21	Reproductive Surgery	421
	Deitra Leonard Lowdermilk
	Women at Risk	421
	Diagnosis	421
	Consultations and Informed Decision Making	422
	Management Strategies.	423
	Diagnostic and Therapeutic Procedures	423
	Tubal Surgery	426
	Ovarian Surgery	428
	Uterine Surgery	428
	Minimally Invasive Treatments	429
	Hysterectomy	430
	Extensive Gynecologic Surgery	436
	Summary and Implications for Research.	438
Chapter 22	Substance Abuse and Women	441
	Shirley A. Murphy
	Epidemiology, Consequences, Risk and Protective Factors, and Prevention of Substance Abuse.	441
	Screening, Assessment, Brief Intervention, Specialized Treatment, and Relapse Prevention	445
	Legal and Ethical Considerations and Implications for Social and Health Policy.	452
	Conclusion.	453
Chapter 23	Violence Against Women	457
	Kären Landenburger and Jacquelyn C. Campbell
	Forms of Violence Against Women: Definitions and Incidence	457
	Female Partners	458
	Characteristics of Abuse	459
	Health Care Consequences and Costs	462
	The Intersection of Race, Social Class, and Sexual Orientation	462
	Correlates of Violence Against Women.	463
	Theoretical Frameworks for Understanding Violence Against Women	463
	Nursing Research	466
Chapter 24	Sexually Transmitted Infections	475
	Catherine Ingram Fogel
	Impact of Sexually Transmitted Infections on Women.	476
	Transmission of Sexually Transmitted Infections	478
	Prevention	480
	Screening and Detection	489
	Caring for a Woman with a Sexually Transmitted Infection	490
	Cervicitis.	495

	Pelvic Inflammatory Disease	499
	Ulcerative Genital Infection	501
	Diseases Characterized by Vaginal Discharge	508
	Human Papillomavirus	515
	Hepatitis	518
	Sexually Transmitted Infections During Pregnancy	521
	Conclusion	522
Chapter 25	Women and HIV/AIDS	527
	Catherine Ingram Fogel and Beth Perry Black
	Epidemiology of HIV	528
	Natural History and HIV Disease Progression	528
	HIV Staging and Progression	529
	Transmission	530
	Risk Factors for HIV	533
	Prevention	536
	Management of HIV/AIDS in Women	538
	HIV-Infected Women of Childbearing Age	547
	Social Concerns Related to HIV	549
	Summary	550
Chapter 26	Cardiovascular Disease in Women	553
	Susanna Garner Cunningham
	Definitions	554
	Epidemiology of Cardiovascular Disease in Women	554
	Risk Factors and Risk Reduction	555
	Pathophysiology of Atherosclerotic Cardiovascular Disease	566
	Diagnosis	568
Chapter 27	Chronic Illness and Women	581
	Phyllis L. Christianson, Eleanor F. Bond, Anne H. Skelly, and Janet Primomo
	Etiology of Chronic Disease	581
	The Epidemiology of Chronic Disease in Women	581
	The Trajectory of Chronic Illness	582
	Managing Chronic Illness	583
	Families and Chronic Illness	585
	Chronic Disease in Older Women	585
	Upper and Lower Respiratory Disease	585
	Gastrointestinal Disorders	590
	Rheumatic and Musculoskeletal Disorders	598
	Neurological Disorders	606
	Endocrine Disorders	609
	Summary	618
Chapter 28	Problems of the Breast	623
	Barbara B. Cochrane
	Sociocultural Contexts	623
	Biomedical Approach to Breast Health: The Illness Paradigm	624
	Breast Health	624

	Breast Cancer629
	Summary651
Chapter 29	Care of Women With Disabilities	661
	Kathleen J. Sawin and Janet C. Horton
	Awareness661
	Choices663
	Consultation663
	Expectations.665
	Sensitivity669
	Sexuality, Unique Populations, and Reproductive Health With Specific Conditions670
	Parenting With Disabilities684
	Summary686
	Index.	693