

CONTENTS

Foreword by Katherine LaBaw RN, MSN, CCRN, WCC ix

Preface xi

Share You Can Teach Med-Surg Nursing!

PART I: INTRODUCTION TO THE ROLE OF THE MEDICAL–SURGICAL CLINICAL NURSING INSTRUCTOR

1. Instructor Contracts and Evaluations 3
2. Effective Student Evaluations 13
3. Learning Requirements and Syllabus Preparation 17
4. Week 1: First Day of Clinical Practice: Forms, Expectations, and Math Assessment 29

PART II: BASICS OF CLINICAL TEACHING AND STUDENT EVALUATION

5. Week 2: Review and Assessment of Basic Skills 49
6. Medications 59
7. Week 3: Admission Assessments 113
8. Week 4: Critical Thinking Applied to IV Therapy, Medications, and Laboratory Values 145
9. Week 5: Preoperative, Intraoperative, and Postoperative Nursing Responsibilities 163
10. Week 6: Delegation and Management Styles and Concepts 175

PART III: BRINGING THEORY TO THE CLINICAL SETTING: TEACHING THE BODY SYSTEMS

11. Week 7: The Neurological System and Assessments 189
12. Week 8: The Cardiac System and Assessments 209
13. Week 9: The Respiratory System and Assessments 229
14. Week 10: The Gastrointestinal System and Assessments 245
15. Week 11: The Urinary System and Assessments 273
16. Week 12: The Musculoskeletal and Integumentary Systems 289

PART IV: THE FINAL EVALUATION, FINAL CONFERENCES, GRADING, AND MAKEUP ASSIGNMENTS

17. Week 13: Final Quiz and Final Clinical Evaluations 305
18. Week 14: Final Clinical Class Topics 315
19. Makeup Assignments, Ethical Questions, and Critical Thinking Exercises 317

Additional Reading 329

Index 333